LOCAL TUMBLER LOOKING FOR TITLE AT VISA'S

ALLEN, TX: Nastia Liukin may be the face of the 2009 VISA Championships taking place in Dallas this week, but there's another local athlete looking to make the World Championship Trampoline and Tumbling team yet again.

Senior National Team member Amy McDonald, who trains at Eagle's Wings Athletics in Allen, specializes in power tumbling. She and wants to be one of the four athletes to advance to and compete in the World Championships in St. Petersburg, Russia before retiring.

McDonald, currently ranked number two in women's tumbling, was a member of the 2007 gold medal power tumbling team as an alternate. That team earned the 2008 Sportsman of the Year award.

McDonald can be seen at the Dallas Convention Center this Thursday at 1:00 pm for the preliminaries, and on Saturday at 11:00 am for the finals.
