BOYS LEVEL 4 & 5 STATE

EWA's men's team brought home a championship team title, as well as four individual titles, from the Level 4 & 5 North State competition held in Garland on April 24.

The Level 5 boys, ages 12 and over, won first place team with only three members. Each one also won at least one North State Champion title. Brian Le won high bar (15.2) and all-around (89.8), earned second place on parallel bars (15.4), and tied for second on floor exercise (14.9) and pommel horse/mushroom (14.8). He also won third place on vault (14.7) and fourth on still rings (14.8) for a great showing.

Andy Hoover was the still rings champion (15.2), earned third place on parallel bars (14.9), and sixth on floor exercise and high bar.

Chance Melancon beat out his teammates for first place on parallel bars, winning with a score of 15.5. He placed fifth on floor exercise and sixth on rings.

Jake Sikora competed in the Level 5, age 10-11 division, placing third on pommel horse/mushroom (15.2) and parallel bars (14.6). In the age 7-8 group, Gavin McCallister tied for second place on floor (15.4), took fourth place on high bar (14.6), and earned seventh place all-around. Logan Cobb tied for fourth place on floor exercise (15.3), tied for fifth on vault (14.6), and placed seventh on parallel bars (15.1).

The Level 4 team also competed. Seven year-old Ethan Tibbs tied for fourth place on both vault (14.80) and rings (14.5), and tied for sixth place with a 14.8 on parallel bars and floor exercise. Braxton Brooks and Garrett Ganakos both age 6, each earned scores in the top ten on vault and parallel bars.
